

Mr Bunny has been working hard, taking pictures of what's in Killay's back yard. He's posted some picture clues for you to find whilst on your travels you must look with your eyes!

The clues will lead to a chick with a letter, all of which you must piece together. Once all the letters have been found, make sure you write the special message down!

If you get it right Mr Bunny will be delighted and to you a special treat he will send because Mr Bunny just loves surprises!

Mr Bunny thought he would help you to start, the first shop sells stuff for pets that bark!
